NEW RESIDENTS

Greater Burlington encompasses the dynamic communities of Des Moines County in Southeast Iowa. These communities include Burlington, West Burlington, Mediapolis, Danville, and Middletown. You'll find the best of both worlds with the historic small business neighborhoods and all the amenities of a larger community.

Greater Burlington is a Midwest community rich in natural beauty with a wealth of opportunity for you and your family. Greater Burlington is blessed to be on the banks of the Mississippi River surrounded by fertile plains and lush wooded areas. As the first territorial capital of Iowa, Burlington has a rich history and continues to be relevant in the economy and culture of Southeast Iowa.

The region offers the diversity and beauty of four seasons, each with its own splendor and opportunities. Each spring brings renewal as plant life emerges in every color and description. In the fall the area's hardwood trees burst with color and the community's parks become a festival of "art."

River towns have a charm and character all of their own and Greater Burlington is no exception. Outdoor music festivals, A Very Vintage Market, Snake Alley Criterium, Fourth of July Celebration, and the Snake Alley Art Fair are all ways the community celebrates life on the river.

Added to the natural beauty is wonderful architecture found in 19th Century homes, unique Downtown buildings and spectacular steepled churches. The community has renewed its commitment to preserve and highlight these structures.

The community is a place where people smile and wave, a place where you know your neighbor and where family is paramount. Greater Burlington continues to invest in the things that matter – education, arts, culture, and recreation. Interests including music, dining, drama, art, golf, hiking, cycling and more are appreciated for the value they add to the fabric of everyday life.

This Community Guide is intended to give you a glimpse of what is available in Greater Burlington. Even more information is available online at GreaterBurlington.com. Come visit our community. Come join us as residents.

* According to study by Council for Community and Economic Research, 2019

"My husband and I moved to Burlington from Iowa City during the summer of 2019 with our daughter who was 5 months at the time. We chose Burlington due to my job and reducing my daily commute. Our home needed to be a mid-size Iowa community with good jobs, affordable housing, nice daycares, recreational amenities, diverse food options, and close-knit community. To our surprise, we found all that and more here in Southeast Iowa. We have made new friends here and were welcomed with open arms.

After living here just a short time, we realized how amazing it is to have a regional airport in Burlington. This allows us and our family in India to fly in and out of Chicago for easy visits. My husband and I like to travel but also love coming back to our peaceful lives in Burlington. This is our home now and I couldn't imagine being somewhere else, living with my little family!"

- Kansha Tiwari, Southeast Iowa Regional Planning Commission

"Being from a rural area in central Iowa, Todd and I always knew we wanted to live in a small town. We spent five years in Dayton, OH and knew that a big city wasn't for us. Even though we grew up in Iowa, we had no idea what a hidden gem Greater Burlington was; it has given us the best of all worlds. For me, I found my dream job at Great River Health System. I'm able to practice big-city medicine, but raise my kids in a smaller town. For Todd, he found the perfect place to start and grow his own business, but also a natural playground for hobbies like fishing and dirt bikes. When we moved here, we thought we'd miss good restaurants, shopping, and live music, but Greater Burlington does not disappoint! Southeast Iowa has already given us so much. We have found wonderful childcare and schools, professional growth, and a community of friends and neighbors that feel more like family."

- Cara Sawyer, DO, Great River Health System
